

Following outputs were achieved in 2017 by the IDEAL programme which seeks to involve citizens in local governance in seven countries facing fragility or conflict

- Awareness raised among decision-makers on the importance of inclusive and gender sensitive WASH services
- 10 chairwomen improved their basic knowledge on gender through a three-day gender sensitivity workshop

- 3 executive directors, by cooperating with other stakeholders, drafted plans to strengthen the position of women in their counties

- Districts enabled to engage with private sector through Private Public Partnerships (PPP)
- Muhanga District has become a more reliable partner to the private sector

- Colleague-to-Colleague learning between Rheden and Rubavu is being set up
- Peer-to-peer Study Visits between district staff in charge of urbanisation led to new insights on how to improve urban services while tackling rapid urbanisation

- Inclusion of women stimulated through collaboration of ALGASL with Nagaad gender network

- AMM's knowledge and skills on Integrated Water Resource Management were strengthened
- National and international stakeholders committed to coordinate on IWRM issues

- ALGASL improved the representation of rural local governments
- 7 new districts are to become paying members of ALGASL
- ALGASL has introduced communication and planning tools into their daily work

- Municipalities are aware of possible conflicts related to IWRM and their role in this
- Over 130 mayors conscious on their roles and responsibilities
- Over 50 municipalities capacitated on enhancing municipal management

- Grant Support for Leading-5 municipalities designed

- ABELO created a gender strategy
- ABELO contributed to the creation of an Arbitration Board for the law on decentralisation, transferring responsibilities to the local level
- ABELO is more financially sustainable

- Emerging-10 municipalities identified

- The municipalities have identified barriers to participation for marginalised groups (women, youth, Batwa)
- The CDC and the CCDC are more aware of how to improve citizen participation and inclusiveness in local community development plans

- Local governments became more aware of their role in the field of LED

- APLA won its first major contract of €600.000 to re-activate its own organization making it a functioning and credible representative of her members again
- Ministerial support for LED attained

- The importance of citizen participation and inclusive decision-making is recognised by participating local governments

- ULGA expanded its lobby and advocacy outreach by involving all members
- ULGA developed tools for members on LED and financial management

These outputs contribute to the following outcomes:

Outcome 1
Effective services

Outcome 2
Inclusive decisions

Outcome 3
Enabling environment